STAYING HOME DOESN'T MEAN MOTHER’S DAY WILL BE LESS SPECIAL!

Moms didn’t come up with Mother’s Day as an easy way to get pancakes in bed. There’s more to the history of Mother’s Day than meets the eye.

The origin of Mother’s Day as we know it took place in the early 1900s. A woman named Anna Jarvis started a campaign for an official holiday honoring mothers in 1905, the year her own mother died. The first larger-scale celebration of the holiday was in 1908, when Jarvis held a public memorial for her mother in her hometown of Grafton, West Virginia.

Due to COVID-19, this year’s Mother’s Day may look and feel a little different. Here are a few ways you could celebrate mom this year:
- Shop Local - Buy flowers from local shops such as Florabelle Florist or Stacy’s Florist.
- Salon Day - Spoil her with mani-pedi’s at home and lunch to-go from her favorite restaurant.
- Be classic - Serve her breakfast in bed and create homemade cards that show how special she is.
